

NATIONAL DIABETES CARE COURSE

The National Diabetes Care Course has been developed by the National Association of Diabetes Centres (NADC) to provide healthcare providers in a range of general care settings with current knowledge of diabetes clinical management and self-care regulation.

THE COURSE MODULES INCLUDE:

- What is diabetes?
- Chronic complications
- Lifestyle issues
- Diabetes medicines
- Acute complications
- Self monitoring of diabetes
- Groups with special needs (Indigenous, CALD, pregnant women, paediatrics and adolescents, elderly)
- Support services
- Managing diabetes in general practice
- Diabetes and technology (continuous glucose monitoring, insulin pumps, apps and gadgets)

FOR NDCC PRICING & MORE INFO

THE COURSE CONSISTS OF TEN MODULES INCLUDING:

- Learning videos
- 24 hour a day access so you can complete the course at a time or place that suits you
- Online assessments
- Certificates on completion of each module